1. Where was Antietam?

2. What personal challenge was Lincoln facing during this time?
   a. His wife wanted a divorce.
   b. Lincoln was fighting off a mysterious illness.
   c. His 10-year-old son Willie died from typhoid fever.
   d. Many of Lincoln’s advisors had quit.

3. Why did it look like the Union was in trouble during this period?
   a. The Union had lost at the Battle of Bull Run.
   b. The Union had lost the Seven Days’ Battle.
   c. The war had come to the North.
   d. All of the above.

4. Why did the Confederacy (the South) have easier military objectives than the Union (the North)?
   a. The Confederacy had more men.
   b. The Confederacy had more weapons.
   c. The Confederacy had more money.
   d. The Confederacy only had to defend what it already possessed.

5. Why were the British interested in seeing an end to the Civil War?
   a. Because the British hated war
   b. Because the British wanted to help the North end slavery in the South
   c. Because the British wanted cotton from America
   d. None of the above

6. Why had the British not recognized the Confederacy?
   a. Because of slavery
   b. Because of the southern economy was in such trouble
   c. Because the British believed the South had no hope of winning
   d. All of the above

7. Why did William Seward warn Lincoln to NOT issue the Emancipation Proclamation?
   a. Because William Seward was in favor of slavery
   b. Because he thought it would look like a desperate act
   c. Because he thought it would make northerners angry
   d. Because he was a racist
8. How did General McClellan get lucky prior to Battle of Antietam?
   a. Lee’s army got lost
   b. McClellan capture Confederate supplies.
   c. One of McClellan’s men found Lee’s battle plans.
   d. all of the above

9. Why was Lincoln frustrated with the performance of George McClellan?
   a. Because McClellan had lost the support of the soldiers
   b. Because McClellan was reluctant to fight aggressively
   c. Because McClellan was ignorant of basic military strategy
   d. Because McClellan was a Democrat.

10. How many were wounded and killed in just three hours of battle at Antietam?
    a. 6,000  b. 7,000  c. 8,000  d. 9,000

11. What did Lee mistakenly assume would happen when his army came to Maryland?
    a. He thought the people of Maryland would rise up to support the Confederacy.
    b. He thought Lincoln would surrender.
    c. He thought there would be plenty of food for his men.
    d. He thought Union soldiers would run away.

12. According to the historians in this documentary, why was McClellan reluctant to pursue Lee’s army and finish them off?

13. What did Matthew Brady put on display in his gallery? Why was this important?

14. Approximately how many were killed or wounded at Antietam? ____________________

15. What word would you choose to describe the fighting at Antietam? Why?

16. What was the most important result of the Battle of Antietam?

17. How many slaves were freed by the Emancipation? ____________________

18. Why was the Emancipation Proclamation important to slaves?

19. How did Antietam and the Emancipation Proclamation influence the British and French?

20. What happened to McClellan after Antietam?