

Rubric for Interactive Notebook

Notes

- Your notes followed the proper format: essential question, outline, and note-taking style (not copied).
- Your notes were legible.
- Your notes represent a complete reading of the assigned text.
- Your notes show evidence of review: highlighting, questions, illustrations, and annotations.
- You have provided a summary to answer the essential question.

Exceptional	Good Work	Acceptable	Need Improvement	Poor Effort
20	16	14	12	11 or less

Journal Entries

- Your entries were each four to five sentences.
- Your entries responded thoughtfully to all parts of the prompt.
- You have responded to all of the journal entries for this time period.
- The presentation of your work (writing conventions and legibility) was flawless.

Exceptional	Good Work	Acceptable	Need Improvement	Poor Effort
20	16	14	12	11 or less

Current Events

- Your current events are all accounted for.
- Your current events provide a clear summary of the story with the relevant who, what, when, where, and why information.
- You have provide information on the source of the article: the newspaper title, article title, the date of publication, and name of journalist.
- The presentation of your work (writing conventions and legibility) was flawless.
- You have explained the historical importance of this event and connected the event to one or more historical themes (see SPICE).

Exceptional	Good Work	Acceptable	Need Improvement	Poor Effort
20	16	14	12	11 or less

Processing Assignments

- All assignments contain the required elements (These “required elements” will vary depending on the type of assignment: cartoon, timeline, letter, news article etc.)
- Your assignments incorporated historical details appropriate for the topic.
- Your assignments were creative and/or displayed artistic effort.
- Your assignments are legible and contain few if any errors in conventions.

Exceptional	Good Work	Acceptable	Need Improvement	Poor Effort
20	16	14	12	11 or less

Notebook Presentation

- The physical condition of your notebook shows that you have taken care of this portfolio of work: no loose pages, rips, or crazy wires. 5
- Your name and period number are clearly visible on the front cover or inside front cover. 5
- You have included a completed (assignment names, dates, and page numbers), neat table of contents (the first four pages of your notebook), and pages are numbered. 10

Exceptional	Good Work	Acceptable	Need Improvement	Poor Effort
20	16	14	12	11 or less