

1. A former hockey star named O.K. Stinson was arrested for killing his wife, Rachel Stinson. After a lengthy trial, O.K. is found not guilty. Two weeks later a jogger finds what appears to be the murder weapon – a knife with Rachel’s blood and O.K.’s fingerprints. O.K. is arrested for his wife’s murder again. What should happen to O.K. in this scenario? Why?
2. The voters of California pass a ballot measure that increases the speed limit on I-5 to 100 miles per hour. The same bill decreases the legal driving age to 14. The Attorney General (the top lawyer of the U.S. government) sues California to prevent these new rules from becoming law. What should happen to this law? Why?
3. Mr. Greene, a teacher at San Lorenzo High School, teaches in his history class that Christianity is the only true religion. One of his students gets angry and demands Mr. Greene get fired. Should Mr. Greene get fired? Why or why not?
4. The Oroville Police Department has been given a warrant to search the house of a known gang member, Billy Baddy. They find nothing in the living room, bedroom, kitchen, or bathroom; but in his detached garage, inside a refrigerator they find fifty pounds of crack cocaine. What should happen to Billy Baddy? Why?
5. Larry Litterbug was arrested for throwing a Pepsi can out of his driver’s side window. He does not deny doing this. The judge sentenced Larry to a year of community service. Every weekend, Larry must walk around downtown Oakland (from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) and pick up garbage with his mouth and carry it to the nearest garbage can. Larry is appealing this conviction. What should happen? Why?
6. In an effort to lower the crime rate in Oakland, Libby Schaaf ordered police to arrest anyone with a gun and have the guns confiscated. Should this plan proceed? Why or why not?
7. A police officer approaches a young man named John Jones; he thinks he is suspicious because of his baggy jeans. The officer asks Johnny to open the trunk of his car. Johnny says, “OK.” Inside the car, the officer finds an ounce of cocaine. The officer then arrests John. Is this a Constitutional arrest? Explain.
8. The city of Oakland orders Mr. Greene to move out of his home, a home that has been in his family for a hundred years. The city of Oakland is willing to pay the “fair market value” for the house in order to build a Target on the property. Mr. Greene doesn’t want to move. Will Mr. Greene have to move? Why or why not?

9. Mr. Greene is arrested in the middle of night and has been in jail for three months. He still doesn't know why he was arrested. What should happen? Why?
10. President Trump has ordered that the citizens of the nation open their homes to soldiers in order to cut costs for the federal budget. Will this work? Why or why not?
11. A group of nice young men continue to "hang out" across the street from a CVS on a sidewalk. The police tell the group that this is gang activity, and they will have to move along. Does the group have to "move along"? Why or why not?
12. Mr. Greene is vacationing in Syria. The U.S. government has learned that he has joined ISIS and has plans to engage in terrorist activities. A drone has been launched to find and fire a hell-fire missile at him to take him out. Should this plan proceed? Why or why not?