

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Reconstruction: America After the Civil War (Part II)

1. Which amendment barred racial discrimination in voting?
a. 13th b. 14th c. 15th d. 16th e. none of the above
2. Who stole a Confederate ship and delivered to the Union before later becoming a state legislator in South Carolina?
a. Roberts Smalls b. Frederick Douglas c. Hiram Revels d. John Roy Lynch
3. Who was elected to the Senate in 1870 from Mississippi, becoming the first black senator?
a. Roberts Smalls b. Frederick Douglas c. Hiram Revels d. John Roy Lynch
4. Which state had black majority in its house of representatives?
a. Mississippi b. Georgia c. Virginia d. South Carolina
5. What is one of the first things African Americans did with their political power?
a. They punished former Confederates in their states.
b. The established public schools.
c. Vote for income taxes.
d. Voted for an end to conscription.
6. Which university was established during Reconstruction and is home to the Jubilee Singers?
a. Howard University b. Harvard c. Fisk University d. Hampton
7. In what kind of performance did white performers put on black face and ridicule black culture?
a. minstrels b. jubilees c. vaudeville d. carnival
8. Who became a magistrate (judge) in Mississippi?
a. Roberts Smalls b. Frederick Douglas c. Hiram Revels d. John Roy Lynch
9. Like Mother Emanuel in Charleston, South Carolina, _____ were the “cornerstones” of the black community.
a. Colleges b. Farmers’ Markets c. Churches d. Barber Shops
10. What happened as blacks obtained more power in the South?
a. Southern whites began to accept African Americans as their political equals.
b. The Democratic party began to reach out to African American candidates.
c. Violence against blacks increased.
d. Blacks looked for violent revenge against southern whites.
11. What was unique about the 1871 Ku Klux Klan hearings?
a. Congress was listening to black people.
b. Congress was taking an interest in Reconstruction.
c. Congress ordered the arrest of Klan leaders.
d. none of the above

12. What tools did the Ku Klux Klan Act give to Grant and the federal government?
- He used the military to go after the Klan.
 - He closed southern newspapers that wrote stories against Reconstruction
 - He took away congressional representation from states with Klan violence.
 - all of the above
13. What event was deeply disturbed Frederick Douglas?
- The reelection of Grant
 - Republican control of Congress
 - The reaction to Robert E. Lee's death
 - none of the above
14. What scandal hurt the reputation of Ulysses S. Grant?
- Watergate
 - Teapot Dome
 - Credit Mobilier
 - Whitewater
15. How did cartoonists like Thomas Nast and journalists like James Pike portray African American politicians?
- As brave for serving in the face of threats of violence
 - As intelligent legislators in Congress.
 - As too unprepared and uncivilized for government work
 - none of the above
16. How many of the one hundred accused of executing African Americans in Colfax, Louisiana were convicted by juries?
- 100
 - 50
 - 30
 - 3
17. What was the political result of the Panic of 1873?
- Republican won control of the House of Representatives.
 - Democrats won majority in the House of Representative.
 - Democrats won control of the Senate.
 - A Democrat became president.
18. The last Civil Rights Bill attempted during Reconstruction was aimed at providing equal access to...
- Public transportation
 - Juries
 - public accommodations
 - all of the above
19. What did the Supreme Court decide in the Cruikshank case related to the Colfax massacre?
- That the 14th Amendment only applied to actions of states, not the action of individuals
 - That anyone who deprives some of their rights can be tried in a federal court
 - That only those born in the United State should be granted
 - That segregation was legal
20. What deal did Rutherford B. Hayes make to become president of the United States?
- He would let southern states control themselves.
 - He would cut taxes for southern states.
 - He would provide funding for southern construction projects.
 - All of the above